ALMA

Sweet be thy memory, High School of ours,
Fair be thy destiny, fadeless thy flowers;
Hearts that have loved thee have won in life's fight.
Names that we honor, thy standards hold bright.

Words by Bertha Scrantom Poole.

MATER

Our Alma Mater dear, to thee we sing,
May all thy future years new honors bring
May friends thy banner raise, thy foes grow less,
All love and praise to our old E.H.S.

Music by J. Guernsey Curtiss, '02.

FOREWORD

*Love 'n Luck to a sweet girl
who deserves it,
Diane "BKΦ"*

Life is like an infinitely long hallway with an endless row of doors along each side. Each door leads to an addition which will make life more meaningful and worthwhile. Each day we approach many thresholds. A certain word or action on our part might be the door to one of those additions. A certain smile might gain a new friend. A little extra study might lead to a greater depth of understanding. Nearly everything we do can be a door to a richer life.

When we students walk down the nearly endless halls of East High School and into our various classrooms, we are living literally the figurative metaphor mentioned above. Each time we open the door to a class, we open the door to greater depths of knowledge and understanding. We members of the class of '61 have been doing this for four years at East High. As we record our story on the following pages and then prepare to leave our Alma Mater, we especially want to note how important and ever-present are those things called doors.

DEDICATION

MR. CHARLES N. CLARK

During our years at East High School, many different people have helped and influenced our careers. However, one person among them has been outstanding. He has had a profound influence upon every member of our class. His sincerity, leadership, friendliness, and understanding have been an inspiration to us. His policy of giving each student opportunities to develop his potential as an individual has opened many doors for us.

All classes are influenced by the principal of their school; however, we feel especially influenced by ours. Now, at the end of our senior year, as the door of East High School becomes for us an exit to an adult world, we wish to recognize the man who has meant so much to us by dedicating this 1961 ORIENT to Mr. Charles N. Clark.

MR. CHARLES N. CLARK

To an unusual degree, Mr. Charles N. Clark is a dedicated educator whose roots are deep in East High.

He was graduated from East High in 1932 and began teaching there in 1936. He graduated from the University of Rochester in 1936 as a member of the Phi Beta Kappa honorary scholastic fraternity. During the year 1951-52, Mr. Clark was privileged to study in Italy under a Fulbright scholarship. There he taught English in Italian schools, further expanding the knowledge which illustrates his vast experience with life.

In 1957 Mr. Clark was appointed vice-principal of East High School. Since he became the principal in 1958, succeeding William C. Wolgast, he has had a direct hand in guiding the city's newest and most beautiful school.

Mr. Clark is a man who has respected the traditions of the old school, but he has also done much to establish new ones. Mr. Clark has realized that the unique opportunities offered by the facilities of East High School have presented the responsibility of developing leadership potential. This year the vigor of a new school has been instilled in its students. Leadership has become a by-word in our Student Government Association, our revision of the constitution, and our participation in school activities.

For one month during the summer of 1960, Mr. Clark studied the humanities at Bennington College, Vermont under a John Hay Fellowship. This opportunity emphasized two things about him. It illustrated the concern of a dedicated scholar to constantly improve himself. Secondly, through its accent on the heritage of human experiences, it indicates Mr. Clark's devotion to the wholeness of life.

In the planning and construction of East High School, Mr. Clark has tried to foster two main ideas which have been realized this year. First, he has striven toward giving each student an equal opportunity for education. The finished classrooms and laboratories have provided endless doorways to opportunity. Secondly, every encouragement has been afforded every student to take on responsibility and contribute to the growth of East High.

East High is rich in tradition, but we, the graduating class of 1961, have tried to do our part in creating a proud new history. To Mr. Clark go our heartfelt thanks for the firm and understanding leadership of four years in East High.

COUNSELORS

Vice Principal

MR. FRED MYERS

The class of 1961 owes a great debt of gratitude to our Vice Principal, Mr. Fred Myers. During our past four years at East High, Mr. Myers has not only efficiently performed his duties as head of all school counselors, but has also found time to be a personal friend and adviser to many members of our class. Without his able and willing assistance, our stay at East could never have been as enjoyable and profitable.

Shining lights of leadership

SENIOR CLASS ADVISERS—Miss Beard, Mr. McRae

Giving us four years of needed guidance has been our counselor, Mrs. Davis. She has spent countless hours with us helping us choose our high school courses and make plans for the future. We are very grateful for this help and the understanding that she has always willingly given.

Through the past three years in which our class has engaged in organized activity, Miss Elizabeth Beard and Mr. Hugh McRae have unselfishly lent their time and efforts to us. All of our many social events and money-making projects bore the successful trademark of their efforts. Now, at the close of our senior year we wish to express our gratitude for the great service they have done for us.

IN MEMORIAM

Gerard Bauer

Gerard Bauer had a somewhat carefree manner, and was a friend to all. However most of us will remember his insatiable love for cars. His death was a considerable loss to our class. We cannot forget him as we look towards the future knowing that he did also, and knowing that he is no longer with us.

CLASS HISTORY

Bringing to a close our unforgettable years at East High, old and new, we pause to recall those things which endeared us as a class.

In September, 1957, the doors of East High opened to three hundred and seventy loud, awkward, unkempt, and nearly uncivilized grammar school products destined to become the class of '61. Within a few short months the rough edges had begun to round off and we began to adopt the appearance and demeanor of high school students. At the Carnival our class made a sizeable profit from its three booths. We were on our way to becoming successful high schoolers.

In our sophomore year we made great advancement again. Under the auspices of our advisors, Miss Rytkenon and Mr. McRae, our class was organized. Elected as our leaders were John Zielinski, President; Dave Galbreath, Vice-President; Susan Williams, Secretary; Mary Versprille, Treasurer; and Barbara Turner, Social Chairman. Class spirit became our watchword as we made our presence known. Our daily scuffles with the seniors for the coveted benches in the main hall became widely publicized events. We worked diligently throughout the year to increase our treasury. By participating in the Carnival, holding a Christmas candy sale, sponsoring a Valentine's dance, and then another dance in May, we added to the black side of the ledger. Our year became complete when we held our successful Sophomore assembly.

In our Junior year a great change came about in our deportment. As upperclassmen we adopted more sophisticated manners. With the capable guidance of Miss Beard and Mr. McRae we had another successful year. Our officers, Bob Ball, President; Phil Brancatisano, Vice-President; Linda Nucci, Secretary; Pat Van As, Treasurer; and Nina Dworkin, Social Chairman, led us to many successes. The Carnival, our first dance held in April, and our Junior assembly are notable examples. The finale of our year was our Junior Prom—and what an occasion for such fine ladies and gentlemen as we had become! With Janet De Hollander reigning as queen, we danced 'till after the bewitching hour celebrating our having attained that noble eminence of seniors.

In September of 1960 the doors of East High opened upon the school year for the last time for our class. Along with the privileges, such as use of the commons room before school, we also accepted responsibilities and leadership inherent in being seniors. We produced the play On Borrowed Time as the first major event of the year in October. Contributing our part to the successful Carnival, we also showed the greatest profit from our five booths. In January we held a beautifully decorated dance called "Snowflake Swirl." Our officers, Bob Guerin, President; Walt Vogt, Vice President; Carol Giunta, Secretary; Chuck Inzinna, Treasurer; and Jan De Hollander, Social Chairman, guided our fortunes down a very successful path. Through such money making projects as a magazine sale and the peddling of the New York Times, our class treasury grew to a more than sufficient size. With enough funds to give a senior banquet, hold a senior ball, and have a '61 yearbook, we can only call our year successful.

June, 1961, is a very notable month for our class. Having come to East three years and nine months ago looking and acting like the little monsters that we were, we leave it with the bearing of adults and with fond memories of the years we spent at it.

Annukka

Love always, Anna-
Maija

A FRIEND FROM FINLAND

A sparkling, vivacious blond joined the class of '61 last fall. In doing so, Anna-Maija Lopenen became the first teenage diplomat to study at East High in three years.

Anna-Maija, an eighteen-year-old high school girl from Pori, Finland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Crawford and their daughter, Susan, a member of the class of '62.

Almost from the minute she arrived in Rochester, Anna-Maija made friends. Among the many Rochesterians who were impressed by her pleasant personality was Clifford Carpenter, editor of the Rochester Democrat and Chronicle, who wrote of their meeting in an editorial which appeared on her birthday.

Anna-Maija also made countless friends at East High. Everywhere she went, students asked her about her home and about her impression of the United States.

Perhaps some of her more pleasant memories of her stay at East High will be her eighteenth birthday, which many of her new friends helped her celebrate, her induction into the National Honor Society, and the very exciting East-West football game. She'll probably never forget her experiences behind the wheel in Driver Education class.

Those of us who had the pleasure of knowing Anna-Maija feel that she helped make a fun-filled senior year even happier. And, more important, she helped us to realize the friendship and proximity of all people everywhere. We know that we will always remember her friendship and we hope that she will never forget ours.

Sue and Anna-Maija

THE SENIOR CLASS

This introduction headed the playbill which was handed to each member of the audience who was fortunate to see the Senior Class production. Under Mr. Dolan's expert direction, the performance became one of the most memorable a senior class has presented. The choice of this play gave a change from regular selections and assisted in the production's success.

The planning and carrying out of certain functions that make a play successful took many people and much time. Credit must be given to Don Vanderstouw, business manager, the make-up department, which did a superior job, and the property department for their contributions. These and many other people gave of their time to assist in the production.

A New Tradition

The graduating class of 1961 was proud to present its class ring to the students of East High School in November of 1959. The emblem, newly designed with the help of the Sophomore Class President, John Ziulinski, has now become the symbol of East High School.

The figure of an eagle is the predominate feature of the ring. This symbol is identified with East High School by the large "E" which rests between the eagle's outspread wings and the word "East" upon which the eagle rests.

Our ring stands by itself, yet it adds to the effect of the events which have taken place in our dear school. It has slipped into place like the familiar aspects of our building, forever to add to our fond memories of our years as students at East High School.

Later, campaign procedures were altered and the final changes were exposed in the midyear campaigns. Elected at that time were Donald Adair, President; Fred Constantino, Vice-President; Sue Williams, Secretary; Margaret Addante, Treasurer; and Jay Birdsall, Sergeant at Arms. In February the S.G.A. presented the musical "Good News." In March "Glenmalure" the first all school dance to be held in six years was presented. Later in the year, the culmination of hard work of many months was presented to the school in the form of a proposed new constitution.

THE 1961 ORIENT

After months of time and effort spent and decisions made, the 1961 ORIENT is now a reality. Under the capable direction of Mrs. Helen Stuart Humphrey and the Editor-in-chief Richard Green, the Orient staff has tried to construct new traditions within the framework of the old. The memorable moments of our senior year are presented within these pages. As we are about to leave East High we realize the influence it has had upon us. The 1961 ORIENT represents to us, the class of 1961, the culmination of four years of toil, play, tears, and joy.

THE CLARION

The development of the many news stories which have appeared in the CLARION this year began with an idea and were worked upon by the coordinated efforts of the Clarion staff. Under the editorship of Gregg Wagner and the assistance of Mr. Guy Mann and Mr. Sylvan Berman, the Clarion "went to press" each month and was presented to the student body shortly thereafter. New this year has been the college article presented in each issue and of active interest to all students. The Clarion has presented a broad view of student opinion and, in spite of some "deadline confusion" surrounding the Student Publications Office, has been a regular presentation of its editors.

VOX CIVITATIS

The Vox Board members have been responsible for the publishing of the Latin "voice of the people." This paper, written entirely in Latin, is designed to help students further become acquainted with the language.

L'ETOILE

Each year the French students publish their newspaper, The Star. Enabling them to better use the language, L'Etoile has become a well-known publication throughout the school.

IL PICCOLO SCRIVANO

Third year Italian students work hard each year publishing a paper that will help them with their language study. Poems, limericks, stories, and human interest articles are combined in this paper to give all Italian students the opportunity to learn more about Italy.

LA VIDA

This Spanish newspaper is published to help students become familiar with the Spanish language. Advised by Mrs. Eunice Harris, the members of the Spanish classes have learned through this paper to more easily read and write Spanish.

EL CIRCULO ESPANOL

To acquaint the students of Spanish with the customs and culture of the Spanish-speaking world is the purpose of East High's Spanish Club. Exchange students from Mexico and the U. S. A. have provided interesting meetings for the club. Mrs. Eunice Harris is the club's advisor.

RENAISSANCE CLUB

One of the most active of East's language clubs is the Renaissance Club. Advised by Mrs. Anna Nolfi, with Roco Di Lorenzo as president, the club has completed another successful year. At the close of each year the senior member with the highest scholastic record receives a small scholarship from the club. This is provided by the club's participation in various school activities such as its annual pizza booth at the Carnival.

FRENCH CLUB

Advised capably by Miss Neun, the Senior French Club is dedicated to a study of everything French. However, not only have the club members learned, but they also have shown their knowledge in such things as the French Cafe at the Carnival.

JUNIOR FRENCH CLUB

First year French students are given an opportunity to learn about everything French also. Advised by Mrs. Freeman, the club members are brought closer to France by their activities.

CHEMISTRY CLUB

The Chemistry Club is one of East High's new science clubs. Organized to further the interests of students in chemistry, the Chemistry Club has presented such programs as "Criminology and Safe use of Chemicals" by City Chemist John Temmerman. The club's able advisors in its pioneer year are Mr. Goodwin and Mrs. Hare.

JUNIOR SCIENCE CLUB

The new Junior Science Club, under the leadership of Mr. Benson and Mr. Walton, has been formed to foster an interest in science at the eighth grade level. Now that it is established, its founders are hoping that it can play an active part in the lives of young East High scientists.

JUNIOR AND SENIOR CHOIRS

Every year at Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter, both the Junior and the Senior choirs give a musical assembly. These assemblies are prepared through the work of Mr. Clarence L. Bilhourn, Mr. Robert Wirshem and their accompanists, respectively, Miss Edna A. McLaughlin and Mrs. Mary Lind. The choirs this year also contributed greatly in the production of the musical "Good News." We are proud and happy to have such a fine musical organization.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The Wolgast Chapter of the National Honor Society, an organization of the top students of East High, has become very important in school life. Advised by Mr. Di Clemente and led by Rainer Sahmel, the club participated in the Carnival by holding a raffle and having a stuffed animal sale. It also helped the eighth graders become acquainted with high school life by planning events for them such as after school dances.

A representative from each homeroom and adviser Mrs. E. Davis together comprise the Junior Red Cross at East High. Dedicated to helping people the world over, this organization helps in the annual Red Cross fund drive and in activities designed to acquaint students with the activities of the Red Cross.

BOOKSTORE

The bookstore, capably operated by Mr. Schutt and his helpers, provides the students with a nearby place where they can buy their supplies at special rates. An example of the progressive aspects of the store is the selling of apples and cough drops as supplies for the modern student.

LIBRARY AIDES

Gaining occupational experience in library work, the Library Aides help maintain the East High Library. Under the direction of Miss Church they have helped many students use the library. They shelved and repaired books and helped set up the many displays which appeared in the library display shelves.

THE WAGON WHEELS

East High's first square dancing club, The Wagon Wheels, was organized this year under the able direction of Mrs. DeVisser. They are an enthusiastic group, meeting on alternating Wednesdays for practice and fun. Every Saturday night they join either the Teen Twirlers at The Barn or the Tumbleweeds from Irondequoit for an evening of "dosi do" and "swing your partner."

CO-OP STUDENTS—Standing: F. LaDolce, C. Burton, F. Mendiceno, K. Capps, J. Worbois, M. Boorum, S. Cortash, M. Deane, P. Cantabene, M. Huckle, R. Bouchard, C. Lessard, P. Carey, M. Loria. Seated: M. Carlisi, S. Vanderstyne, Mr. DeLong, J. Barg, A. Hands. Kneeling: E. Frelrier, T. Salamone, F. Lima.

The Cooperative Office Training Program was established to offer seniors, having a major in business, a combination of classwork and actual experience on the job. By spending four periods in school, two of them in office practice with their adviser, Mr. DeLong, they are able to obtain the required credits for graduation. This program is invaluable to the students as it tends to make them more self-reliant and better trained for a future position.

CARNIVAL

This year's Carnival was the biggest and most successful of all Carnivals held at East High. There were over 35 booths sponsored by the various organizations in the school. The faculty show in the afternoon was a smash hit. The day was topped off with the evening show and Maurice Keating as Master of Ceremonies. At the show the King and Queen of the Carnival were crowned—Phil Brancatisano and Jan DeHollander.

GOOD NEWS

As the gold curtain rose on the East High stage on February 10, 1961, the first musical comedy to be presented in the new building began.

"Good News," a Broadway hit of the 1920's by Laurence Schwab and B. G. DeSulva, was the story of campus life at Tait College during the "roaring twenties."

Tom Marlowe, Tait's star football player was suddenly in danger of being ineligible to play in the biggest game of the season, because Professor Kenyon threatened to fail him in astronomy.

Patricia Bingham, Tom's best girl, persuaded her cousin Connie to coach Tom so that he could pass the course. Up 'til then, Patricia had managed to keep the two separated, but out of loyalty to her school's team, she made the necessary arrangements for the meeting.

Little did she realize that serious complications were going to result. In the result, Tom played in the game and fell in love with Connie.

In the cast were the cheerleaders, chorus girls, football players, and the East High chorus. Providing the background music was the orchestra.

It was a fine and very successful production. Annual productions of different musicals now appear to be certain.

SOCCKER

The 1960 East High School Soccer team became the first team in the 1960-1961 sport season to take home a city championship. Tutored by the colorful Mr. Daly, the purple and white coasted to the crown with a seven won, one tied record. The team went into the finals of the Sectionals, but lost a hard battle to Rush-Henrietta.

Chosen for the All-Scholastic Soccer Team from East were, Steve Hassos, Dick Huussen, and Glenn French. The staff of the 1961 Orient would like to congratulate Coach Daly and the squad for a very fine season.

CROSS COUNTRY

Once again the East High cross country team outlegged all other city rivals to capture the top spot in Interscholastic competition. The 1961 Harrier squad members through the guiding hands of Coach Anthony Beisman left every opponent in their dust, bagging all four of their triangular meets.

Picked for the All-Scholastic Harrier team from East was Willard Smith. Kicking up Cobb's Hill sod for the last time were seniors Chuck MacKay and Ed Jankowski.

FOOTBALL

The East High gridmen, mentored by Mr. Youngman, sported a respectable 4-4 record in a tough Interscholastic League. The boys worked extra hours just to give East High a team to be remembered. Their exciting brand of football brought more students into the stands than any team in the past few years. The highlight of the season was the thrilling victory over our traditional rival, West High, in the closing minutes of the game. Of special note for the Orientals were T-U All Scholastic Nate Smith and D & C Most Valuable Player Phil Brancatisano.

Donning their purple and white jerseys for the last time were seniors Joe Casale, John Pelano, Mike LoPresti, Bill Protz, Ron Ange, Angelo Marrocco, Jerry Vitto, Jim Sevio, Ralph Stepney, Wally Smith, Dennis Minni, Nate Smith, Phil Brancatisano, Terry Fondrk, and Tom Tette.

BASKETBALL

The sounds of a ball swishing through the nets, the banging thuds of a skillful dribble and the grunts from lanky hoopsters are all signs of the cage game, basketball. The East High gym was one place that was not lacking any of these sounds. The East High hoopsters, coached by Don Youngman, were one of the most colorful teams in the Interscholastic League, and posted a respectable 8 won 8 lost record in a very tough league. Pounding the East High hardwood for their last time were seniors, Herman Brown, Herb Spotford, Laurel King, and Don Adair.

WRESTLING

"Leg tackle," "reverse half-nelson," "sit out";—these are just a few of the terms which can be heard when the winter sport, wrestling, comes in season. This year was no exception as East High students were treated to a scientific brand of wrestling, performed by the purple and white matmen. Coach Beisman's grapplers showed true to form this year by snaring fourth place in the league. Seniors pinning their opponents for the last time for the Orientals were Bill Protz, Pat Scarlata, Jim Sevio, Ralph Stepney, Paul Carletta, and Ronald Ange.

SWIMMING

For the first time in history, East High has enjoyed the facilities of its own pool for practice and regular interscholastic meets. The finmen responded to the new incentive by splashing their way to third place in the standings with a 6 won 2 lost record. The tankmen in the guiding hands of Coach Morse well represented the Orientals in 1961.

TRACK

When the final man sprinted past the tape, the cindermen found themselves in 5th place in the 1960 city competition, sporting a 3 won-5 lost record. In spite of the record, the Purple and White banner again found the limelight in the American Legion Track Meet, as a fleetfooted East High foursome captured the 2-mile relay.

TENNIS

The East High Tennis Team capably coached by Mr. Torrens won two matches, lost four and tied one in 1960.

GOLF—W. Gregory, M. Myers, S. Tibbets, J. Miller.

GOLF

Again well represented in the league, East High picked up three wins against four setbacks, good for fourth place. Outstanding for the 1960 Orientals was James Hosmer, who was low man in the city four times.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—Standing: R. Fiorica, M. Addante, B. Turner. Kneeling: R. Lana, S. Spencer, P. VanAs, A. Rothfuss, J. Melia.

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year, the student body has been led in many new cheers, as well as the old standard ones, by head cheerleader Pat Van As and all of the varsity cheerleaders. Helping them, in their job, have been the members of the Booster Club, organized this year by the cheerleaders. Many thanks go to all of these girls and their advisor, Mrs. Mason, for the fine job they have done.

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

This year's J. V. cheerleaders, led by Joanne Pagano, cheered on our champion soccer team and spirited the J. V. basketball five at their games. Their great enthusiasm helped raise school spirit and the team's morale. Three cheers for the J. V.'s!

JUNIOR VARSITY CHEERLEADERS—Standing: J. Pagano, J. Taffner, E. DiMora, R. Hayes, J. Stillwell. Kneeling: C. Greco, J. VanAs, N. Frank. Absent: M. DeMallie.

MAJORETTES

By promoting school spirit, the Majorettes, under the direction of Mr. Ben Daly, brought color and gaiety to many sports events this year. They actively participated in student and faculty basketball games and twirled for the city sectional playoffs. Two of the largest events planned by the "Orientals" this year are the Memorial Day Parade and the Precision Water Show to be presented at East High.

SYNCHRONIZED SWIMMING

The first annual water show was put on this spring by the members of the newly formed synchronized swimming team. The girls swam to music and performed stunts in the water under the student direction of President Nina Dworkin. This is a sport which is growing in popularity, and many girls are learning a great deal while having fun.

ANYONE'S "first job" is to get his basic education—and congratulations are due the boy or girl who gets this job done well. Now, how about the next job?

Career opportunities in Rochester, with its many and diverse industries, businesses and professions, should interest almost any student. Most Rochester companies are recognized for their high standards and advanced technology. It follows that standards for employment are high, too—and a good education tops the list.

Now, here is an important angle to think about: an employer knows what kind of people he is looking for. The student ready for a career, therefore, ought to have an equally good idea of what he or she is looking for.

Talking with parents, counselors, friends, and with employers themselves will reveal what kinds of positions are available in what kind of industry, business or profession. How do education, experience, and personal characteristics measure up to a given employer's requirements and standards?

The correct answer is the key to anyone's career. There is no door it cannot unlock—when the key fits!
